

Tony Scott-Green – Bio

Tony Scott-Green is an award-winning composer of original music for film, TV and commercial projects and has crafted music for feature films, TV shows, documentaries, web series, marketing & advertising agencies and Fortune 500 companies.

He has been composing and playing music for over 20 years. Originally from Scotland, he now composes and records in Chicago-based Greenhouse Sound Studios, splitting time between Chicago, Los Angeles and New York as projects dictate.

A sample of recent projects includes:

- ‘The Life and Death of an Unhappily Married Man’ – Feature, 2015. Composed original score. Won ‘Best Original Score’ at Brasov International Film Market and Eyecatcher Film Festival
- ‘Wild Blue’ – Feature, 2014. Composed original score
- ‘Fear No Art’ - TV (PBS). Composed incidental music
- ‘Greetings! From Prison’ – Web Series, Composed theme music
- Second City Theater, Chicago. Composed all music for live comedy show

He studied at Northwestern University and the Berklee School of Music. In addition to composing, his side projects include performing/improvising solo jazz guitar and playing in the Western Swing band The Howdy Neighbors.

Tony Scott-Green

tony@tonyscottgreen.com

www.tonyscottgreen.com

